The unfortunate couple involved in this case has got three cases filed by each of them pending in two different Family Courts, namely, Family Court, Thiruvananthapuram and Family Court, at Nedumangad. The wife has filed case for maintenance, return of ornaments and also for injunction from taking away children. Husband has filed petitions for divorce, for return of money and another suit for setting aside the sale. It is desirable that all these cases are tried by one and the same Court. It is submitted by the wife that one of her children is physically handicapped and she is residing at Thiruvananthapuram and therefore the case may be transferred to that Court.

2. The learned counsel for the respondent, in fairness, submits that the cases can be tried by one of the Courts but he does not agree with the averments made in the transfer petition. Therefore, I am not considering the merits and demerits and allegations and counter allegations. But, in the interest of justice, I feel that cases can be tried by one and the same Court and let it be tried by the Family Court, at Thiruvananthapuram. Therefore, OPs.1487/05, 1488/05 and 704/06 pending before the Family Court, Nedumangad is transferred to the Family Court, Thiruvananthapuram for trying along with cases M.C.71/05, OP Nos.985/05 and 354/06.

The Tr.P.C. is disposed of accordingly.

M.N. KRISHNAN, JUDGE.
